September 19th, 1912.

Mr. Howland Wood,
93 Perry St., Brookline, Mass.

Dear Mr. Wood:-

Please accept my thanks for your favor of the 13th inst. I return you herewith the rubbings of Chinese castings as they do not particularly interest me. I also return you the two coins of the Chinese Republic.

In regard to the thirteen Bamboo pieces, I have bidden on the collection of Chinese Bamboo money to be sold on September 27th, 1912, by Fred Michael & Bro. Would you have any objection to allowing me to retain the pieces you sent me until after I hear the result of my bid on this sale? If I do not succeed in getting this set I will retain the pieces you sent me. If I succeed in getting these pieces and there should be any different varieties among those you sent me, would like to retain such additional pieces. When I remit to you will send you the fifty cents for Ramsden's Chinese Barter Coins. When Mr. Ramsden's new book on Chinese Spade Money is published, will you kindly send me a copy.

With best wishes, I am,

Yours very truly,

Harry E. Montgomery

Enclosures.

P.S. If you obtain any ancient Chinese coins at cheap prices, will you kindly send me rubbings & the coins on approval
